In Texas, there's nothing better than a day at the pool in the intense southern heat--unless your preference is a relaxing evening in the spa. Luckily, our experts at Eden Swimming Pools & Landscaping in McAllen, Texas specialize in both.

Whether your pool exists only in your dreams, or is sitting in the backyard in need of an overhaul, the Eden Swimming Pools team can make your fantasy of a blissful outdoor retreat a reality.

Our Process

We'll start by getting to know you and those who will be using the pool, and discussing your desires and preferences, as well as any restrictions or limitations we need to take into consideration. We'll explore the area you have to work with, and we'll help you come up with a solid plan for a project that will serve all your needs and exceed your expectations--now and in the future.

At Eden, we want to be sure your pool is an investment you'll be happy you made for years to come, and we'll spend a significant amount of time up-front to get all your questions answered, outline a project you're comfortable with, and design a pool you're confident is the perfect one for you.

Once plans are finalized, construction begins! You'll love watching our progress as we move through the phases of pool building. From excavation and forming, to electrical and plumbing, onto decking and tiling, and finally, plastering and start-up, each step is more exciting than the next! The Eden Swimming Pools staff is always here to answer your questions at any point in the process, as your partner in this rewarding endeavor.
